

LUTON MN1135

DESCRIPTION

The purse made of recycled felt with a vigore design is a perfect option to carry your coins and small objects in style while being environmentally aware. This purse is made from recycled felt, making it a sustainable and environmentally friendly choice. The vigore design gives a modern and attractive touch to the purse, making it both functional and elegant. With its matching clasp and handle, you can easily open and close the purse, keeping your coins and small items safe and organized. The inside of the purse offers a compact but sufficient space to store your coins, keys, headphones or other small items that you need to take with you. The recycled felt used in its manufacture is durable and resistant, protecting your belongings from possible damage. Choose a purse that combines functionality, fashion and environmental responsibility with the recycled felt purse in a vigore design. Make a conscious choice and add a touch of style to your daily accessories.
