

LANDA TC1144

DESCRIPTION

The bamboo chopping board with slate is a stylish and functional option for your kitchen. Made of bamboo, a durable and sustainable material, this board offers a sturdy and safe surface for cutting your food. Its rectangular design with rounded corners provides a large work area, while the built-in slate gives a more gastronomic design to the presentation of your products. The integrated handle makes it easy to manage and transport the board, giving you comfort in every use. This chopping board is ideal for both home use and gift-giving as it combines functionality and style in a single kitchen utensil. Wash the board by hand and dry thoroughly after every use in order to extend the service life of the board.
